CREATIVE
NORTHLAND

QUARRY ARTS CENTRE

The Quarry Arts Centre New Zealand's longest running arts centre. Founded in 1982 by artist Yvonne Rust, it has been home to many of Northland's finest artists, potters, and craftspeople. It's an eclectic place with a bohemian feel, located in a scenic spot just off State Highway 1. Quarry Arts features galleries, ceramics and art supplies, kilns, workshops and artist studios. There is a beautiful waterfall and many sculptures and artworks on display on the grounds. We are also home to the Te Kowhai Print Trust and a fine crafts co-op shop and the Quarry Café.

THE SHUTTER ROOM

The Shutter Room is a volunteer-run photographic gallery, studio and workshop venue, to support, promote and provide professional development opportunities for artists and photographers in Northland. Over the winter months, The Shutter Room is hosting a Photo Helpdesk on Fridays from 1-4pm. Do you need help with a camera? Want to make an image the right size to print? Need to know how to try something in Photoshop or Lightroom? Come on in and we will see if we can help. Ellie Smith will be behind the desk to help you.

WAIRAU MĀORI ART GALLERY

The Wairau Māori Art Gallery is the first dedicated public Māori art gallery in Aotearoa. It joins a select group of public indigenous art galleries internationally and is housed within the stunning new Hundertwasser Art Centre in Whangārei. The name 'Wairau' is Te Reo Māori for One Hundred Waters, just as Hundertwasser means 'One Hundred Waters' in the German language. In Te Ao Māori the notion of multiple waters has deep symbolic meaning since water is the basis of all living things.

HUNDERTWASSER ART CENTRE

Located at Whangārei Town Basin next to the Hātea River, Hundertwasser Art Centre is the last authentic Hundertwasser building in the world. Inside you will discover over 80 artworks by Friedensreich Hundertwasser, the painter, visionary and environmental activist. The exhibition focuses on his artistic legacy from 1973-2000, highlighting the time he lived in New Zealand. Visitors can also discover Aqua Restaurant & Bar, a cinema room and a museum shop with unique products. An afforested roof completes the experience of a more human architecture in harmony with nature.

Address: 81 Dent Street

THE BACH

The Basin Arts and Craft House is Northland's largest craft cooperative. Our spacious gallery features quality work from over 80 local artisans. This vast array of quality work includes prints, woodwork, ceramics, bags, textiles, pottery, cards, garden art and so much more. Of special interest, attracting hundreds of visitors annually is our unique 'Community Tapestry', which is being woven depicting the history of the Town Basin. Visitors are welcome at any time to experience this ancient artform on the 'have a go' tapestries and contribute to the special 'history' series.
